

Privacy Policy and General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

1Stop Trailers Ltd Statement

This statement sets out our policy on privacy and how we comply with the new legislation that protects our customers, suppliers and employees.

Below is the list of whose data we store and what we store. Our suppliers have been sourced for quality and professionalism.

Our Customers

The contact details include your name, company name (if applicable), address, contact no and email address and any other relevant details. These details are kept on our secure email system and computer files.

Our Suppliers The contact details include the company name, contact name/s, address, contact no and email address and any other relevant details including VAT numbers. These details are kept on our secure email system and computer files.

Data Storage Our computers are protected by Firefox firewalls & internet security. Emails, accounting records and computer files are accessed only by the Director and Secretary. The files are all individually password protected. All personal data information is kept on file for the minimum amount of time that certain authorities require.

Data Sharing

1Stop Trailers Ltd does not sell any data. The data we have is shared, when appropriate, with our stockists, our accountant, the relevant tax authorities, government bodies, police, insurance companies, our suppliers, if required.